

Islip, NY – Islip Town Supervisor Phil Nolan recently appeared at an event in East Islip to honor those who lost their lives on September 11th, 2001.

The East Islip Chamber of Commerce unveiled their 9/11 Memorial, which is located in front of the East Islip Public Library.

“We can never do enough to honor those we lost on that day,” said Supervisor Nolan. “It was a day of unbelievable tragedy but we became a stronger nation and community because of it.”
